Activities/Honors

My diverse experience allows me to find creative, effective, and practical solutions for my clients.

My goal is to work with you personally to gain an in-depth understanding of your legal issue and to create an innovative and workable solution to your problem. My areas of expertise include family law and general civil litigation.

I have handled a wide array of family law matters including divorce, child custody and visitation, child support, property distribution, alimony, adoption, and guardianship. My clients are equally diverse, with cases ranging from high asset to simple matters. I am certified as a Best Interest Attorney in Maryland and have a background in child development and education.

My legal experience is widely varied, and my background as an associate with a general litigation firm has provided me insight into the intricacies of civil litigation, representing individuals and corporations alike.

I am dedicated to my clients and committed to having a deep-rooted understanding of Maryland law. If you have a legal issue in an area where I have expertise, please reach out to contact me. It would be my pleasure to work with you.
