

Madison T. Howard

Associate
(301) 251-1180
(240) 778-2320
mhoward@mcmillanmetro.com

Practice Areas

Family Law
Alimony Concerns
Child Custody and Access
Child Support
Domestic Violence Issues
Premarital and Post-Nuptial
Agreements
Separation and Property Settlement
Agreements
Fiduciary Litigation (Trust and Estates)
Corporate & Civil Litigation

Education

Washington College of Law, American University, J.D., 2021

Roanoke College, B.A., 2018, Array

Bar/Court Admissions

- Maryland
- District of Columbia

Activities/Honors

I am committed to providing personalized, thoughtful, and effective legal solutions tailored to your unique needs. With experience in both traditional and non-traditional family law, I work closely with clients to fully understand the intricacies of their legal challenges and craft innovative, practical solutions.

I have handled a diverse range of family law matters, including divorce, child custody and visitation, child support, property distribution, adoption, guardianship, and probate. My broad experience in various types of litigation gives me a unique perspective on how to approach each case. I understand that every family and every client is different, and I approach each matter with the attention and care it deserves, ensuring that my clients' interests are fully protected.

Above all, I am deeply dedicated to my Clients and committed to understanding the nuances of D.C. and Maryland law, which are ever-evolving. If you're facing a legal issue in these areas, I invite you to reach out. It would be my privilege to help you navigate your legal challenges and achieve a positive outcome.