7811 Montrose Road, Suite 400
Potomac, MD 20854
(301) 251-1180

Fiduciary Litigation (Trust and Estates)

At McMillan Metro Faerber, we understand the legal challenges associated with fiduciary litigation, especially in the context of trust and estates.

Our skilled Trust and Estates and Litigation departments, led by attorneys with over two decades of experience, collaborate closely on these matters to develop strategic approaches. We dedicate ourselves to understanding and prioritizing your legal needs by employing strategic problem-solving to resolve disputes.

Our firm has experience in resolving disputes through negotiations and mediation before escalating to litigation, however, if negotiations are unsuccessful, McMillan Metro Faerber is adept at zealously advocating on behalf of both plaintiffs and defendants. Our clientele includes individuals serving as fiduciaries, such as trustees, executors, and guardians, as well as beneficiaries seeking to enforce their rights.

We manage a variety of fiduciary disputes, including conflicts of interest, lack of transparency, and impartiality among beneficiaries. We handle cases involving allegations against trustees for misusing trust funds or investment choices, resulting in substantial financial detriment to beneficiaries. Our experience also extends to disputes related to the failure to distribute assets as well as instances of undue influence. Please call us at (301) 251-1180 or submit an online inquiry.

Attorneys

Elyse L. Strickland
Heather L. Sunderman
James M. Brault
Madison T. Howard
Jennifer A. Manley-Kapoor